SENIOR CITIZENS ANNUAL AWARDS

From: The Mayor's Commission on Aging

Three Senior Citizens will be selected annually by The Mayor's Commission on Aging to receive recognition for active community involvement and for having made a significant contribution to the quality of life in Riverside. Those nominated must be 60 years of age by January 1 of the nominating year and be a resident of the City of Riverside. Nomination forms are available at the reception desk in the Office of the Mayor at City Hall, Senior Centers, The Riverside Review, and AARP. Each nominating form should be accompanied by a one to two page essay to include specific references to areas of volunteerism, contributions or achievements, length and diversity of service, and quotes or comments by those involved with the nominee. The essay and nominating form should be sent to:
